

Prophecy for 2010 Colin McGeer: 29 November 2009

I am about to bring to completion the tithe of this twenty-first century, I have been building and I have been placing the stones in place. I have been putting in place those things that have needed to be put in place. My living stones are being built into my dwelling place. I am about to complete the tithe for this next century. I will restore all things. I am in the process of restoring and bringing restoration in My Church. I am in the place of bringing restoration in my creation – I am posed to put things right and this will be the greatest century that has ever passed by. This is the generation that I will show great and mighty things. I have called you and I have birthed you for a time such as this. I have placed you in the place where you are for this very time says the Lord. As you open your ear to Me, you will hear Me very clearly and I will speak to you and I will give you direction. I will show you what you must do in this next year to bring to completion the tithe. I will show you what needs to be placed in position so that I can bring about a change in My Church so that I can bring about a change in your society, so that I can bring about a change in everything that I see and in everything that I have created. I want you to know this morning I have created you and I have blessed you and I have called you and I place my Spirit in you and there is coming an outpouring of My Spirit like you have never experienced before. If you would desire me, if you would long for Me - you will experience the flow of My river. This next year is going to be an important year in terms of your church. This year is going to be an important year in terms of your business. This year is going to be an important year in terms of all that you place your hand to do – and I will be with you. I will bring healing to you. I will bring health to you – and I will speak to you very clearly and you will know that it is I. You have longed for me. You have desired me. You have longed to see my manifest presence in your life and I want you to know as you press in, as you hold on to, as you listen to My voice, you will see Me in many ways in this coming year. I am with you says the Lord. I am the great I am. I am the Holy one and what I say I will do and I will bring to pass. This is the generation that will begin to see my perfection. This is the generation that will know My divine perfection. This is the generation that will know that My hand is upon them and that I love them. As you enter in, hold on to Me with everything you have. I want you to know that I will be with you even though the waters may seem rough, even though the waves may seem big. I am with you I will not leave you and you will overcome. You will walk through because I will be with you. You will walk through the fire and I will be with you – you will walk through many difficulties but I will be with you – you will see me moving in My Church. I will increase My Church. I will bring an increase to My people. I will be with My people and I will perform miracles and I will perform signs – and I will perform wonders amongst you. The things you have desired in this following year, you will begin to see them come true. I am building a base. I am building a platform for the greatest things that you have ever seen. I said you will do even greater things' than these. I said that I would be with you. I said you will see it with your eyes. I said you will not be disappointed. I say that you will not draw back. I say that you will not give up. I say this morning that I will hold your hands – as you climb the highest of mountains you will reach the peak and you will see all of My glory and you will see all of My goodness. I love you and I've named you and I've called you and I've placed My favor upon you and My love will never be taken away from you. You will know My love in the morning. You will know My love in the afternoon. You will know my love in the evening. Your relationship with me will grow much deeper. Your relationship with me will be totally different. I am going to do a new thing in your life. You're going to experience a budding. You're going to experience a blossoming. You're going to experience a garden that is filled with all of My goodness. I will provide for you. I want you to know I am going to release finances. As you go forward, as you need, as you want – I will release finances. I will restore to you the years that the locust has eaten. I will restore to you that which has been taken from you – I will restore to you the things that you need. I want you to know that in all circumstances, I will be with you. You are My people. You are a called out people. You are a special people. I also know and want you to understand that change is here and change is going to continue and you will see further change in the New Year. There will be change in government. There will be change in your town. There will be change even in your church. There will be change in your business. There will be change in the things around about you but do not be dismayed. Do not be afraid. I will be with you and you must know that it will be Me. I will bring rain again on your nation and it will continue to rain on this nation and you will continue to experience My blessing poured out upon your nation. I will be with your nation because I love this nation. I love your people. I love this continent and I am speaking My Word because I am about to bring a revival that has not been felt ever before – that has never been experience on this continent. It will be continent wide it. Will burn and the fire will grow and increase. You will see a harvest come in like you've never seen before. I will be harvesting in this year, I will be harvesting. I will be taking out those things that are not meant to be in your life. I will be taking out those things that are not meant to be in My church. I will be cleaning says the Lord. I will be cutting says the Lord – but it will not be painful. You will not at all experience any pain in it because I will be with you and you will know that it is for your good. It is for your good says the Lord. As you rest in Me, as you trust in Me, as you believe on Me, I will not leave you nor forsake you. I will be with you every single step. I require from you, that you love Me. I require from you, that you love those around about you. I require from you that you love your brother as I have loved you. I require love to fill My Church and there will be a flood of love. There will be a flood of love into My Church. It will just come from your heart. You will never understand it. You will never know where it comes from – but know this, this morning, it is Me and I will restore families and I will restore homes. I begun the process, but I am establishing. I am establishing – because you going to see something in this 21st century that you could not have dreamt about. You're going to see things happening that you never thought were possible. As I was in the book of Acts with My Apostles, so I will be with you. And you will see signs and wonders. You will see My hand. You will move and it will surprise you. You will walk into rooms where sick people are and they will be healed just because you walk in – because I am with you. There will be many testimonies. Many testimonies of My power. There will be many testimonies of My love. There will be many testimonies of revelation because this year is a year of perfection. This is a year that I am establishing My divine order that I am bringing about and as you wait on me, as you watch, you will know that I knew long before you got here, what is going to take place. I prepared you for this time. I prepared you for this moment. I have trained you, I have taught you, I have placed My Spirit in you – and you will have My Word on your lips. By My Word and the confession of your mouth and your testimony, you will see many open doors. I see open doors. I see open gates. I see things that were locked suddenly open. I am seeing gates flying open. I am seeing doors opening. I am seeing a river racing. God is in it, God is in it – God is opening it. This is God. This is God's hand. This is God's doing. God wants us to know this morning, that He loves us and cares for us. I feel the Lord is saying this: "I am pleased with you." I feel the Lord saying this that: "You are My called out ones." I feel that the Lord is saying this: "You are My chosen ones." I do not want you to draw back. I do not want you to be discouraged. I do not want you to be afraid. I will be with you every step of the way. This is going to be a time that you need to know that I am with you. The great I am is standing with you. As I was with David, as he stood in front of Goliath, so I will be with you. As you stand in front of this following year and the things that are to follow – you will see victory upon victory upon victory. Do not draw back, blessed are they that overcome. Blessed are they that trust Me. Blessed are they that step out on the water with Me. Blessed are they that will put there full faith in Me. Now is the time. Now is your opportunity. I also feel like this is a year where if you have not started a dream, if you have not started a business, if you have not started writing that book, if you have not started that new vision, that new idea that you had, 2010 is the time to start it. 2010 is to put it into practice. 2010 is the time to step out on the water. I really feel so strongly the Lord saying this following year is going to be your year to make change. This following year is going to be your year to do things you've never done before. This following year is going to be a year where you must not draw back or be afraid – but you must press on. Go forward and do whatever God tells you to do and He will be with you. This is an important year that is coming up. This is a year that God is putting divine order in place. This is a year where you are going to establish. I feel God saying this is the last of the establishing years for the 21st century. Establish. Be rooted. Be built up. Be encouraged. Be full of joy. Be full of peace. Don't draw back. Hold on to the Lord. Go forward – know this that God is with you. Amen.
